Remember Public Schools This Week

It has been our pleasure to serve as a judge along with Bert Betts and School Trustee Bob Brown for an essay contest on the subject "Our Public Schools, An American Heritage."

Fifth and sixth grades, seventh and eighth, and Senior High School were the three divisions to be judged.

Amazing how much we underestimate our youngsters. Their originality of thought and clarity of expression make them a joy to read.

What a responsibility we adults have to these fine young Americans. Their fierce loyalty to America and her great traditions make it imperative, we think, that our criticisms of our leaders and institutions must always be constructive.

Frankly, we'd like to hear the word Patriotism used more. Somewhere along the line a great switcheroo has been pulled on us. We have been going through a period where a patriot has been called a flag waver and a bit corny.

We all reverence those who came before us and passed on to us an America greater than they found it. We also must hold in honor those who are unselfishly seeking to hand America on to the future better than it came to them.

The editor of the Review, who is continually lecturing on the virtue of brevity as it pertains to news reporting might be interested in the following story we read the other day in "The Country Gentleman."

The new reporter on a rural weekly was told to stick to bare facts in his news stories, no frills, etc.

The following day he reported this gem:

John Smith R. F. D. 2 entered his bull pen Monday to see if the animal had recovered from an injury. He had. Age 47.

Over My Shoulder
By A. F. "TONY" SONKA

Last week I told you how I came across a copy of a 1948 issue of the Lemon Grove News, now extinct, and how it had published therein an historical article on early Lemon Grove.

This article, the second of a series of several, carries on from where the other left off.

Last week the article closed with an analysis of the words "history" and "progress." This article starts with the word "Forward," a name chosen for the present highly respected and able Woman's Club.

Part Two
That word "FORWARD"—it is a part of the history of Lemon Grove, as is indicated in the naming of this organization. The Forward Club is an inspiration to all of us (Now Woman's Club).

The object of history, then, is that knowing the conditions of past times and generations (the trials, joys, fears and accomplishments, as well as the failures), learning that the people of those days striving to go forward, and did go forward in spite of drawbacks, gives us the inspiration, the urge to accomplish more, under better conditions and with improved methods, than those who went before us.

I am indebted to "Helbron's History of San Diego County," the files of the San Diego Union in the Public Library, Tony Sonka, Dr. White, Mrs. Walter Denlinger, Mr. Mason of Mason Feed Store, and others who I wish to thank, all of them, for the information which follows:

In the early beginning, before the year 1669, Lemon Grove was a desert spot without a name, known only to the Indians.

These Indians lived in circular wickiups, or shelties, made from whatever material there was at hand. Those in or near the Lemon Grove district, used the brush, reeds or grasses that were growing here at the time. These wickiups were rain and wind proof, warmed by a few coals in the center, where the Indians huddled together when it was cold. They had animal skins for covers. The door was low, so that they had to crawl on all fours in

LIARS AND FISHERMEN CAN WIN PRIZES IN GROVE CONTEST

A new contest which should take the imagination of all fishermen and contest joiners alike gets under way in Lemon Grove in May.

Name of the contest is the 1st Annual Giant Lemon Grove Liars and Fishing Contest and about a dozen business people are sponsoring it.

A large list of prizes will be given. The contest is for fun and anyone is eligible to win. Any male or female, young or old, must sign a register of anyone of the merchant sponsors and receive a blank weight certificate to be used at any sport fishing pier.

All the prizes are on display at the merchants who are sponsoring the event.

To be eligible, naturally, you must catch a fish. Any yellow tail, blue fin, tuna, or albacore, regardless of weight makes the fisherman eligible. The fish must be weighed at the sport fishing pier the same day caught and the weight listed on the certificate which is available at the sponsor's place of business.

The prizes will range from fishing tackle to meals and the prizes that can be displayed will be done so until September 19th. Then they will all be moved to Art Berry's Lemon Grove Home and Auto Supply until the 24th when the contestants will receive their awards.

The business firms sponsoring the event are the Lemon Grove Home Auto and Supply, Jim's U Rent It, Lemon Grove Review, Anderson's Service, Avalon Cafe, Browne's Refrigeration, Lemon Grove Camera Shop, Western Auto, Mel Hammerstein, Lane's Men's Wear, Shopping Center, Lemon Grove Hardware and Wright's DoNuts.

Further details will be published in next issue of the Lemon Grove Review.

Big Ace Improves Parking Area

Angular parking is the newest innovation at Big Ace, it was announced this week by Jim Banister, the firm's president.

Straight-in parking was engineered at the time the market was built. Soon women shoppers stated they preferred the angular style.

This week a crew of workmen will start the change over—a several thousand dollar improvement.

"Anything the ladies want us to do, we'll do," said Jim Banister.

Report Given On Rec. Program

The Lemon Grove Recreation Program, now in its third week of operation, is still attracting scores of youngsters.

Mr. Mike Caldron, recreational director, reported a record turnout of 800 youngsters on opening day and attendance has remained steady which proves the need for a recreational program in the community.

School children from all of the schools in the area pour over the Junior High athletic field and Youth Center three evenings a week. Thirty-six ball teams, now in the midst of league play, occupy the four baseball diamonds while tennis, basketball and handball courts are also packed with aspiring young athletes.

Instructions in target gun and archery for older age groups will be started soon.

In the Youth Center, which was packed with more than a hundred boys and girls, one of the volunteers was kept busy registering and doling out equipment, keeping small games and ping pong organized for the group.

Unfortunately the craft classes, originally scheduled, have been postponed because of lack of volunteers. Contact Mr. Caldron at the Fire Station for information regarding these classes.

A square dance group meeting for Friday evening from 7 to 8 and an orchestra practice are being added to the schedule. A service sponsored teenage dance will be held on May 8, instead of April 24, with the Pastels furnishing the music. All teenagers are invited to this affair which will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior High Cafeteria. Tickets will be 40c per person.

Mr. Caldron and the volunteers of the Recreation Program are gratified by the tremendous response from the youngsters and

New Post Office for Lemon Grove, Representative Utt Promises

"The danger from Communism from within is as great as enemy attack from without," Congressman James B. Utt told a record turnout at the Lions Club last week.

Sharing the place of honor with "A new post office definitely will be built in Lemon Grove in spite of federal commitments in a list of 20 proposed buildings which excluded Lemon Grove."

That is part of the message Representative James B. Utt brought to Lemon Grove Thursday night when he addressed a ladies' night group of nearly 100.

On the national scene he said that Communism is a direct threat to the security of the United States and that there was as great a danger of collapse

"John B. Gibson is a good Christian gentleman and will make an excellent assemblyman," said U. S. Representative James Utt, during his visit in Lemon Grove last week.

"John's business experience would stand the taxpayer in good stead should he be elected," Rep. Utt added.

Gibson for Assembly offices will be set up next week in Lemon Grove and workers will fan out over the community seeking assistance for him, according to Sidney Campbell, manager of the Pacific Telephone Company in this area, who has been named Gibson's campaign manager.

from within as there is an attack from the outside. He also told of the threat imposed by the Communists in Indo-China, how the Communists were nibbling away at our defensive perimeter, and the stiffening of backbone we would have to exercise in order to call it to a halt. He said that unless we demand a halt to this Communist infiltration there is Tradition informs us that King Solomon had seven hundred wives and three hundred lady friends, which undoubtedly accounts for so many Masons.

The astounding attendance at the recent Sunday morning breakfast arranged by the Lemon Grove Masonic Club indicates that members of the Craft are well-represented in this area and the establishment of a Lodge is assured.

And now we learn that Libera is striving towards a film contract. Oh, no! We are not enthused by his saccharine smile and sugary music and quite agree with the critic of the Los Angeles Times who said of Libera's act "that the illusion of great artistry was perfect." We are allergic to him along with ham dinners and fashion shows.

PASTOR GREETED BY ADVENTIST CONGREGATION

A housewarming party was held last Thursday evening for Elder W. R. Robinson, the new pastor, and Mrs. Robinson, at their new home at 7300 La Mesa, La Mesa, by members of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

Elder and Mrs. Robinson were presented with gifts from the church, and refreshments were served later in the evening.

Members of the Dorcas Welfare Society of the church joined with other Dorcas groups in a county-wide Federated Dorcas meeting held last Tuesday in the Seventh-day Adventist church in Escondido.

Mission work and welfare projects accomplished in the first quarter of 1954 were reported by each church's Dorcas secretary.

Sack lunches were carried and fruit punch and hot postum were served by the Dorcas group of the Escondido church.

WOMAN'S CLUB YEAR NEARS END

As the club year nears its close with a single meeting remaining before the Lemon Grove Woman's Club's installation of officers and adjournment, Mrs. Paul Harvey's review of the outstanding civic leadership of several members at the meeting last Friday was most apropos.

Those commended were Mrs. Hal Crow, representative on the Citizens' Advisory Committee, Mrs. H. I. Vernier, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. A. P. Schnell, active in the Grossmont Woman's Hospital Auxiliary, and Mrs. Charles Williams Brown, for her work on the Citizens' Advisory Committee, of the Grossmont High School District, and chairmanship of the Federation of Woman's Club's Civil Defense committee.

Of especial interest is a scholarship initiated by Mrs. David Hentigan, president, which will be awarded in the near future and a new "Homemaker's" section now being formed by Mrs. Frank Eldridge.

Mrs. Schnell, also Garden Section chairman, announces a benefit May Day Fair to be held from 11 to 5, May 1 by the Grossmont Woman's Hospital Auxiliary. Mrs. L. D. Newton and Mrs. Eldridge will also assist at the plant booth that day.

Scrip to Be Used at Swim Pool Carnival

Announcement was made this week that the dime scrip tickets which will be used in lieu of cash at the Swimming Pool Carnival, Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15, will be distributed through school children. Teachers of the Elementary School District will aid in the distribution, it was stated.

Plans are going ahead rapidly with details of the huge carnival and already 35 booths at which merchandise may be obtained or games played and prizes won, are a certainty.

Tom Warburton, vice-principal of Helix, pointed out that there will be no admission charge to the carnival. Admission is free to the grounds and anyone may come and watch the events without charge. Tickets which are presently being sold by school children and club members throughout the community may be used instead of cash for any of the events or merchandise on sale at the carnival, he pointed out. Warburton is chairman of the project.

Already the ladies of the cafeteria at the Junior High School have set up a dinner menu for Saturday. Mrs. Ruth Pfister, cafeteria head, said that the menu would consist of a plate lunch and hot coffee as well as sandwiches and snacks. These women, numbering seven, volunteered their services at the meeting held last week at San Miguel School where all committee assignments were crystallized.

Arva Piepenbrink, who is in charge of entertainment, said that the parade would consist of at least three bands and would start at approximately 6 p.m. on Friday on Broadway near Massachusetts and follow Broadway to Imperial, up Imperial over Golden to the Junior High School playgrounds. The staging area will be just north of Broadway.

Mrs. Piepenbrink said that the parade is open to any group and individuals. Further information may be obtained from any of the committee members of the Lemon Grove Review.

Mrs. Piepenbrink said also that the Fairest of the Fair contest for local girls would be run off during the carnival.

Voters Have Responsibility of Good School Board

School board elections will be held throughout California in June, and these elections give every citizen a voice in school affairs, even though he is not a member of the board. Therefore, it is the duty of all to help choose good trustees, see them in action, give them your counsel, and know the policies that govern the school.

Without pay and without glory these citizens assume major responsibility for the operation of America's largest and most important "industry"—its future citizens. Eighty seven per cent of the boards in this country are elected, and so the responsibility of selecting an efficient board rests squarely upon the shoulders of the voting public.

What traits are desirable in a good school board member? Here is a list of qualifications suggested in "Virginia School Board," a manual produced by the Virginia Association of School Trustees:

1. Genuinely interested in, and devoted to, the public schools; with an abiding faith in education; a belief in its possibilities, and a desire for its progress and improvement.
2. Of good standing in the community, of unquestioned honesty and integrity, with a deserved reputation for good judgment and sound common sense.
3. Successful in his occupation to the point of general public recognition of his ability to direct the important business affairs of the school system.
4. Interested in the community, with the traits of civic leadership, with a good influence in the community, and with some ability to get along well with people.
5. Open-minded and with broad vision and social understanding, willing to listen to reason, not afraid to chance opinions when convinced, and a good loser.
6. Able to plan ahead and to think independently, to rely on facts and arguments rather than prejudices and emotions, and to stand by conclusions and decisions.
7. Courageous, willing to take responsibility, able to stand criticism, and willing to defend the board's position and decisions.
8. Able to cooperate with others, with a strong sense of justice and loyalty to associates.

Ceremony for Poluzzi as DTA Head

Louis Poluzzi was installed as president of the Lemon Grove District Teachers Association for a second term last Thursday evening at an impressive ceremony at the junior high auditorium on School Lane.

Gordon Shields, president of the San Diego County Teachers Association, acted as installing officer. Others who assumed their new duties included Keith Dolan, vice president; Lockey Polermo, recording secretary; Clarence Allen, treasurer; and Wiley Cornelius, auditor.

In the preceding business meeting Mrs. Anna Garner, assistant executive secretary of CTA, SS, spoke to the teachers on two possible plans which may be presented to teachers in the entire state early next year. Her talk was followed by a question and answer period.

Refreshments were served by Miss Helen Shelton, social chairman, with the assistance of her committee.

Bill Brown Opens Insurance Office

Charles W. "Bill" Brown, Jr., announces the opening of a Lemon Grove office of the Southland Insurance Agency at 2186 McKnight St. Brown, owner and manager of the organization with headquarters at 535 Spreckels Building, San Diego, states that the branch office has been opened to afford more convenient service in every insurance line to the residents and businesses of the Lemon Grove area.

"We are happy to have this opportunity to serve more closely the people of one of the fastest growing and most prosperous communities in the Southland," Brown added. "When a person buys insurance he wants two things—protection and service. We believe that our staff can and will give the best."

"In the field of general insurance, life, fire, automobile, personal and business liability, workmen's compensation, bonds, etc., we are licensed with the Harbor Insurance Company of San Diego and some of the finest New York and Pennsylvania companies," Brown continued.

"We are proud to write our life insurance with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, third largest in the country and famous for its outstanding mortgage cancellation, educational, endowment, retirement, family protection, and group insurance programs. With this line-up we are able to offer a prompt and efficient solution to any of your insurance problems and will appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you. Give us a call at HO 9354-9355 or drop by the office and we will be glad to discuss your insurance needs with you."

Brown is a native of San Diego and has resided in Lemon Grove since 1944. He has been a licensed insurance agent since he was graduated from Stanford University in 1949.

'Send in Gifts Now' Cancer Chief Urges

The annual April Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society's San Diego County Branch has entered its final stages Jack Durham, Lemon Grove chairman, reports today as he urged that county residents planning to contribute do so as soon as possible.

"The Crusade," he said, supports a program of education, research and service to patients."

The educational program, he said, includes free film showings, distribution of literature, talks by physicians, and cooperation in presenting the facts about cancer through evening adult classes.

"Cancer," Durham said, "is a very personal thing because it strikes 1 in every 5 people. Every San Diegan has known someone with cancer. The Crusade's aims to expand its educational and research activities are, therefore, important to every resident."

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

If I have anything in common with my fellow-man, I suppose it's a strong distaste for being pushed into a corner.

I think that I share the reaction of the average citizen in reacting with brooding, sullen talks and high pressure tactics.

In an election year it is to be expected that office seekers will utilize every means at their command to attempt to woo the voter. I suppose there's no other way to do it except after the fashion of many radio and tv commercials where the same theme is hammered into your ears so many times that you accept it rather than to do what your normal intelligence tells you and to reject it.

Politically speaking, no one can deny that Gov. Goodwin Knight is popular. Until this campaign got under way I personally felt that I would go out of my way to support him even to the extent of voting for him. But Goody is beginning to pall on me just a little.

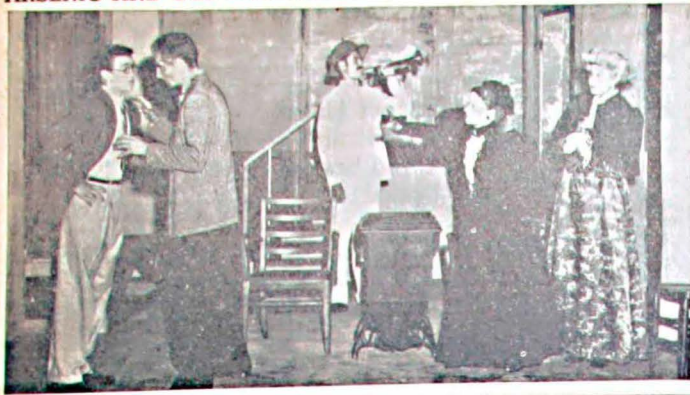

While I like to hear from the aspirants from time to time I am beginning to resent having every other piece of my mail be a letter from Goodwin Knight or his campaign manager or anyone of the organizations which are sworn to support him.

It is almost unbelievable but absolutely true, that out of a batch of 20 pieces of mail one day this week, ten of them were from Goodwin Knight and/or his representatives.

I have heard it said that he is determined to saturate the state with his publicity. Why he intends to waste his money, fighting a battle that he had apparently already won is a mystery to me unless he possibly is trying to snatch defeat from certain victory.

I am not going to be stampeded by such tactics. I am not going to read through 30 or 35 publicity handouts every week and then hand them into one little square for Governor Knight. As a matter of fact, I don't even think I'll vote for him. I will probably vote for his opponent if he ever writes me a letter so that I can learn his name.

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE MAKES READY FOR SHOWING

Members of the cast of the forthcoming production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" go through a rehearsal prior to its showing at the Woman's Club House on May 7th and 8th and again on May 14th and 15th.

The story has to do with murders in the Brewster family amid much comedy. In the scene above

The show is a production of the Heartland Players.

Eagles to Present

Mother's Day Program

A Mothers' Day program which will pay tribute to the ideals of motherhood and the worth of the home will be sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in co-operation with Local 325, American Federation of Musicians, Sunday, May 9, at the Spreckels Organ Pavilion, Balboa Park, San Diego, and all Lemon Grove is invited.

The regular recital on the world's largest outdoor organ will be dedicated to the efforts of the Eagles to have Mothers' Day accepted as a national holiday.

Following at 3:30 p.m., a 25 piece orchestra under the direction of Mr. Danny Lewis will give an hour long concert of instrumental music tune to the occasion.

FAIREST OF FAIR PRELIMINARY TO BE HIGHLIGHT OF CARNIVAL

One of the highlights of the swimming pool carnival scheduled at the Jr. High School grounds May 14 and 15 will be the selection of two girls to represent Lemon Grove and Spring Valley in the Fairest of the Fair finals at Del Mar, Saturday, June 5. Mrs. Carl Piepenbrink Jr., said this week. She is the chairman of the contest for the sponsoring Jr. Woman's Club.

Judging will be conducted Friday evening. Contestants will participate in a pageant in the late afternoon to stimulate interest. Queen aspirants, between the ages of 16 through 19, and single, can obtain entry blanks by calling Mrs. Piepenbrink at HO 6-2489. Judging will be on beauty, personality, charm and poise. Talent is not a requisite.

The Fairest of the Fair reigns over the Southern California Exposition & County Fair, June 25 through July 5. She and her mother are guests of Hotel Del Mar for 11 days. In August she will represent this county in the Maid of California pageant sponsored by the California State Fair in Sacramento.

All participants in the preliminaries will receive a cosmetic accessory from Lip-Mate Corp. of Hollywood and the Exposition. Barney Newlee, director of special events, said.

CANCER FUNDS TO PROVIDE FOR 5-POINT PROGRAM

Funds provided through contributions to the American Cancer Society's current Crusade finance a five-point program of education and service for San Diegans. Jack Durham, Lemon Grove chairman of the unit of the county branch, American Cancer Society said today.

The story of the "seven danger signals" is spread through films, pamphlets and talks. Any organization in the county may request film showings or medical talks from the Cancer Information Center, 1401 5th Avenue, in San Diego.

At the center, counseling service is available for any person, without charge. Patients are provided with referral service to competent physicians for cancer detection and treatment.

Consultative tumor boards are sponsored jointly by the local cancer society branch, the San Diego County Medical Society and Mercy, Paradise Valley and Quintard Hospitals. These boards are composed of specialists in the area of the body where the cancer is suspected and, if necessary, specialists in other fields of medicine are called in.

Arrangements have been made with the Visiting Nurses' Association so needy families may receive home nursing care, and family guidance. For extreme hardship cases, sickroom equipment, dressings and supplies are made available to cancer patients.

The 35th annual observance of Public Schools Week, an unique California institution, is taking place this week.

Practically every school co-operates in this observance. During the week every patron, regardless of whether or not he has children in school, is invited to visit the school in his district to become acquainted with the school plant, personnel and problems.

This is an honest attempt of school personnel to break down barriers of misunderstanding that result from too little acquaintance of each others problems.

Club Reports Auto Influx

Out-of-state and foreign automobiles — 187,746 of them — brought 498,493 individuals into Southern California during the first quarter of 1954, the Touring Bureau of the Automobile Club announced.

The quarterly influx of non-California automobiles was second only to the same period of last year when a record 197,876 foreign autos touched their wheels to Southern roads.

The influx pattern was the same throughout the state for the first quarter, with a total of 302,624 cars coming into the state this year compared to 319,847 in 1953's first quarter.

A fitting centerpiece of sweet-peas cradled in a king-size bootee with little stork nut baskets and accompanied by "kimono" napkins completed the motif. Meringue shells filled with ice cream, topped with pineapple and served with coffee, or tea, were served to some thirty-two guests.

ENCANTO CHURCH TO HEAR ALICE COUCHMAN

Miss Alice Couchman, 19-year-old lyric soprano, will be presented in a recital Friday evening, April 30, at 8:00 in the new sanctuary of the Encanto Methodist Church. She will be assisted by Charlotte Dewse, organist. A reception honoring Miss Couchman and Mrs. Dewse will follow the program.

Miss Couchman appears frequently on television and was a winner in Horace Heidt's San Diego talent search, was the featured soloist at the annual San Diego Youth Symphony concert last year. She has been a Musical Merit Award winner the past two years and is studying voice under a Musical Merit Foundation scholarship.

One of a series of organ benefit concerts sponsored by the senior choir of the Encanto Methodist Church, it is hoped that our Lemon Grove neighbors will avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy outstanding talent so close to home. A free-will offering will be taken.

Civil Defense Notes

Charles Gurley HO 6-3745

"Duck and Survive" is the new Civil Defense watchword for this Lemon Grove unit according to the latest information forthcoming from Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti, Zone Warden for this area.

"Anyone within the ten mile radius of a bomb target, and that undoubtedly includes the residents of this community, should be ready to duck for cover whenever a real ALERT (any continuous blast of the siren which lasts one full minute or longer) sounds," said Dr. Gigliotti yesterday.

"We urge our people to avoid panic, to take whatever comes calmly, to obey instructions from anyone carrying any C D insignia and then hope for the best. In as much as we have no public shelters, it is up to the individual to provide his own individual or family shelter and this we hope has already been done."

Movie Actress Penny Edwards announced that she was quitting her career to become an evangelist with the Seventh Day Adventists. Explained Penny: "This all started a year ago. One day I felt I was just bursting with love. I had an urge to read the Bible. I began studying it and a lot of things were revealed to me. Editor the Review:

I have been asked to contact folks who are suffering from Myasthenia Gravis in this county. It is a disease of the muscles, which due to a chemical lack, fail to coordinate with the nerves. Victims suffer from double vision, drooping eyelids, difficulty in walking, speaking, and swallowing. There is no known cure for this disease; victims cannot have insurance, nor can they secure employment from plants like Convar.

There is a movement in the county for these MG sufferers to organize a foundation such as has been done in many states. Doctors are urged to cooperate by telling their MG patients to get in touch with pioneer sufferers, who are trying to get a group together for organization. The plan is to organize and attempt to raise money for research for a cure. One meeting has been held in San Diego, and others will follow soon. So much has been accomplished for polio, cancer, TB, and other dread diseases, through organization, so let's help the myasthenia gravis sufferers, too.

My son has the disease, and I know many other fine young people in the county who would appreciate a chance to raise money

YOU BE THE JUDGE!

TELL YOUR HEIRS ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS

As a rule, your will is too important to clutter with detailed facts and advice to your survivors. It is not the place to tell where you keep your important papers. But your survivors, for example, should know. They might need these papers in probate proceedings or to carry on your business. Some of these papers might bear on your survivors' actions.

So put these vital facts in a letter to your survivors: Where are your personal account books? Letters about your business affairs? Your cancelled checks and receipts? These facts will protect your estate from false claims.

Besides current bills, do you have any debts? If so, list them and your creditors. Where are the copies of your income tax return? Your car pink slip? Do you handle people's property? Then note where you keep such records.

Where do you keep all your insurance policies — life, health, car, accident, others? They may cover your family as well as yourself. Your family may wish to continue them.

Do you own real estate? Where are the deeds and title insurance policies? Do your records show capital gains basis for your real estate and what you invested in any piece of real property? Tell your heirs what you think you should do about your real estate and other property.

Do your records show which property is separate and which is community? How the court divides your property may rest on these records. Besides, good records may save tax dollars.

If you own stocks, bonds, or other securities, where are your records? In each of these matters you may have in mind certain persons best able to handle them. Make note of them. List all persons whose advice you think will help your survivors. And in all matters, give names of firms you have dealt with. Also, name the persons you have dealt with in these firms.

Many of the names of the tribes and villages have been lost for two hundred years. But it is known that the men dressed in breech-clouts of fur or feathers, with the fur or feathers on the outside. The rest of the body was naked in warm weather. In cold weather they used a kind of wrap or cape of skin or feathers for additional warmth. They also used feathers in their hair in a tuft on top or at the back of the head. The Indian women wore a headdress made of reeds or straw, that looked like an inverted basket, and a loose apron of hide with the fur on the outside, and hanging in a fringe to the knees. These Indians used bows and arrows for weapons.

The early Indians of San Diego County had some interesting ceremonial dances. In one, the eagle dance, the dancers wore skirts of eagle feathers, reaching to the knees. The head dress was also of eagle feathers and consisted of a wide brim that extended over the face and head. A story of the capture of the great bird, the death and the use of the feathers for clothing, was enacted in the process of the dance. The dancers went East, West, North and South in search of the great eagle, then the bird was captured and killed. At the close of the ceremony, the dancers whirled or pivoted until the skirts stood out horizontally from the body. Those accomplishing this feat were considered the best warriors, the bravest men.

Another striking dance was called "The Fire Dance." In this, the dancers, men and women, circled a blazing fire. After dancing for awhile with the usual small drum "whoopiup," the women backed away, out of the circle and the men stamped at the fire with their naked feet. The women entered the circle again and after dancing for awhile, again backed out of the circle, while the men beat the fire with bare hands. This dance was continued in this manner until the fire was extinguished. In this manner were the Indians trained in bravery.

no question but that they will bring our defense perimeter to the Hawaiian Islands.

The United States is engaged in a move involving calculated risk of war to check "Communist nibbling around the edges of the free world," he said. "The administration, as I see it, is taking a calculated risk to prevent the loss to the free world of all of Asia, Japan, South Korea, Formosa and the Philippines. Such a loss would force us back to where our Western defense perimeter would be the Hawaiian Islands."

Utt said he did not believe the United States, under President Eisenhower, would go to war without a vote of Congress.

"I am confident that Congress will support the President's decision on facts presented," he said.

For the United States to say it would do nothing in the face of Red advance would be disastrous, Utt said.

"And if we did move, there would be no sanctuary for the Reds as there was during the Korean war," he added.

He also said that we have the strongest armed force in the history of our country and that our bombers fly on daily missions within 800 miles of Moscow.

Congressman Utt said that one of the major problems facing Congress today is keeping America working while we change from a war economy to a peace time economy and involved in that is keeping the United States currency firm.

"We are determined to stop inflation," he said.

A standing ovation was given to congressman following his address.

Max Goodwin, publisher of the REVIEW, was in charge of the program. He told the audience of a reception for Utt at his home just prior to the dinner at which were present, what he called "the greatest Republican assemblage under any Lemon Grove roof."

He told how he had sat at a roundtable with state senatorial aspirant Ralph Cloyd, assembly aspirant John B. Gibson, and Congressman Utt, at which time they discussed things that should be done and could be done for the average citizen. "They were not discussing politics, either," Goodwin said. He pointed out that this was "democracy in action" and it is a good answer to anything the Communists have to offer.

Following the dinner, Congressman Utt stayed for an informal question and answer period.

George McCluen, operator of Master Cleaners on Broadway, said that his firm would supply enough uncalled for cleaned and pressed clothing to fill a rummage booth. He said that all of the money taken in from this event would go to the swimming pool fund.

Channing Mason, assistant chairman for the event, said that a baseball pitching machine, similar to the ones the Padres use in spring practice, would be one of the features for the youngsters. Other devices which are sure to catch the youngsters' eye, have been acquired by the Chamber of Commerce, which is in charge of supplies. Mrs. Vernier said that a fire truck ride, a merry-go-round and an airplane ride had already been contracted for. Here again scrip tickets will be used in lieu of money.

Dr. Frank Gigliotti had announced previously that Gov. Goodwin Knight would be on hand for the parade provided his schedule can be adjusted to permit it. Members of the committee indicate the parade would be more than a half mile in length.

Drawing for the Lions Club $1500 trailer will be made at the carnival on Saturday. That club has been selling tickets for the past two weeks.

A poster contest is under way in the elementary schools and many of these posters will be put in shop windows about town to advertise the carnival.

While no estimate can be given as to the amount of money the carnival will draw, it is believed that the receipts will be only a small part of the total needed to build the pool. No estimates of the total cost have been obtained nor has a site been chosen. Leaders of the fund raising campaign have decided to wait until enough money is in the kitty to assure the start of the project within a reasonable length of time before considering pool sites. At this time the entire organization will join together in naming a pool site committee and it will be the responsibility of this committee to nail down a place to put the swimming pool.

While much effort is going in to the carnival, committee members point out that contributions of any size, aside from scrip buying, are welcome.

May-Pole Dance School Feature

Classes at Golden Avenue are hard at work on dances they hope to present at the school's annual Spring Festival on May 11.

Fifth graders have chosen a queen, Carol Marshall, and a king, Robert Buford, who will be crowned at the beginning of the program and will reign over the festivities.

A high spot in the program will be the winding of the May Pole by kindergarten youngsters, a feature omitted last year but put in again because of so many parents' requests.

Mrs. Hazel Mulkey and Mrs. Evelyn Caldwell are serving as co-chairmen for the event, and report good progress.

FASHION EXPERT ADDRESSES LIONESSES

Toni Tacoma, head of Fashionables, Inc., a charm and modeling school in San Diego, was guest speaker at the Lemon Grove Lioness meeting last Wednesday night at Michael's.

Miss Tacoma, resident of Spring Valley, demonstrated many do's and don'ts of walking, standing, sitting and talking and discussed some of the subjects taught at Fashionables.

During the business meeting, a nominating committee was selected to propose a slate of officers for the coming year. New officers will be elected at the May meeting.

Michael's Installs New Carbonation Plant

One of the most modern drink-mixing installations in Southern California has been put in at Michael's, according to Henry Goldy.

The plant, completely automatic, serves up coca-cola, 7-up or gingerale with pin point carbonation and ice cold from a combination tap. These are ingredients of mixed drinks.

Because water, which is to be carbonated, must first be filtered, a king size filtration plant has also been installed. Because of this all the water used at Michael's is run thru this plant.

KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION PERIOD IN MAY

All elementary schools in the Lemon Grove District will hold registration for next year's kindergarten students during the week of May 17 through May 21.

Parents who wish to enroll children in kindergartens here next September should make every effort to list them next month. Because of the possibility of overcrowded classrooms, kindergarten children who have registered in the spring may be admitted first in the fall. Others may not have an opportunity to enroll if the number of students swells beyond present expectations.

The entrance age to kindergarten classes in California is four years and nine months as of September 1, 1954. At time of registration, proof of date of birth must be submitted. This may include a birth certificate, baptismal certificate, any other legal documentary proof, or a photostatic copy of any of these.

Registrations will be held at Golden Avenue, Monterey Heights, San Miguel, and Vista La Mesa Schools in the offices of the secretaries.

'Shoppers Are Funny'

By BOB TURNBULL

Many years ago whenever children entered a grocery store they usually liked to dip their hands in the open-barreled flour or chase the free running mice. A few years back the fad was to hide in amongst the shelves or knock down the towering displays of specials. But, OH, how times have changed. Take for instance the fascination that "Big Ace" holds over today's tots. Whenever they enter our store they are first confronted by automatic doors that open a few feet before they reach the door itself. After recovering from their first shock of this new wonder to their yet limited-brain they proceed to run helter-skelter in and out of the doors, all the while wide-eyed at the "magic man" that pushes the doors for them. (Pity the poor doors). The little monster, kids after entering the store love to run wild, buy goodies at the snack bar, ride in the baskets, get in everybody's way, and in general, just have a ball. But all kidding aside, "Big Ace" loves to watch the playful antics of the little ones. It adds more interest to our jobs. So you see, "Big Ace" is as fascinated by the children as the children are by "Big Ace."

You'll be pleased to know that at our Lemon Grove store we now have on display for your inspection a fine variety of S&H Stamp Premiums. Drop in and take a look. See for yourself why it pays to shop at Big Ace where we share our profits with you through lower prices plus "S&H"

State College Open House to Mark 57th Birthday

Programs and activities covering nearly all areas of learning will be offered to the public at the San Diego State College open house May 2, celebrating the 57th anniversary of the college's founding.

"Twenty-six departments of the college will take part in the campus-wide program, which is scheduled from 2 to 5 p.m.," said Dr. Lauren C. Post, open house chairman. "The public is invited to come, free of charge, to see the college in action, and to get a first-hand glimpse of what and how we teach."

Visitors will be able to test their emotional fitness by taking sample psychological tests given by students. They can watch dramatic performances from Alice in Wonderland and Androcles and the Lion, or watch folk dancers perform the native dances of five countries.

They will be able to check their "good taste" by taking quizzes offered by the Art Department. They will learn how they can improve their selection of furniture, clothes and accessories.

Among the many other activities will be a musical program which will include the College Symphony Orchestra and Band and the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs; exhibits of student painting, sculpture and photography; experiments showing the nature of liquid air; demonstrations showing how Geiger counters work, and various high voltage demonstrations.

JOE WESTON OPENS 'CLIP' SERVICE

The establishment of San Diego's first county-wide newspaper reading and clipping service was announced here today by Joseph H. Weston, author and veteran newsman.

Clippings will be made from all newspapers published in San Diego County, whether daily, weekly, or other, Weston said. Publications to be reviewed or clipped for clients will include house-organs, high school and college papers, and trade-journals that originate in this county.

Checking the appearances of advertisements and surveys or news and editorial opinion printed by all editors of the county will be among the services offered by the new firm, known as the Joseph H. Weston Co., at 1220 Bittern st., San Diego 14.

Weston is the author of the book, "These Amazing Mormons," which became a national best-seller in 1948. He is associate editor of the San Diego Shopping News.—Independent.

WHAT'S DOING

S. S. Campbell, your Telephone Manager for Lemon Grove

New gun shoots wire instead of bullets

If you ever visited your local telephone office, you most likely were amazed at the thousands of small wires that connect the intricate equipment. It used to be that each tiny wire connection had to be soldered by hand. But today, on some kinds of equipment, a new wire wrapping gun is used. It literally "shoots" wire around a terminal. And it grips so tightly that, if you tried to pull it loose, you'd break the wire first. By doing an important job faster, better, cheaper, the wire gun helps us provide service at low cost to you. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Long distance calls now cost you less

The reduction in excise tax from 25% to 10%, voted by Congress, is good news for long distance telephone users. All of the reduction will go directly to our customers. It means that every long distance call you make—to anywhere in the country—now costs you less.

Enjoy the convenience of an extra telephone for just pennies a day

Anywhere in your home—in the bedrooms or kitchen... in the garage or basement—you can enjoy the added convenience of an extension telephone. Extensions make it easier for the whole family to place calls, receive calls. And this step-saving service is yours for just pennies a day. To order your extension, call our business office today.

How to say more in your long distance calls

You'll find you can "say" more words into your long distance calls if you make notes in advance. That way, you'll cover important points in less time. Remember, too, that you'll save time if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling. For a free personal number booklet, contact our business office, Pacific Telephone.

EARL COOPER, Atwater rancher and long retired auto racer—"I'd a lot rather take my chances on a speedway than most any highway. Race drivers hit speeds motorists can't touch—but at least they know what they're doing."

nately till May 2—Curtain time at 8:30 p.m.

Dance—Time... There's going to be a real cool dance thrown in the new Cafeteria at the junior high school come this May 8 (Saturday). The time is from 8 till midnight. The dance tunes will be provided by the incomparable dance band of Helix. "The Pastels." Refreshments will be served and everyone should come in dressy-dress. The dance will be sponsored by a recreation committee that is newly formed. So for a riot night, pick up this bit of shuffling.

Heartland Players Present... "Arsenic and Old Lace" on May 7, 8, 14 and 15 (Friday and Saturday nights). Curtain time is 8:30 and everyone that attends this hilarious comedy will be seated in comfort at tables and chairs. Refreshments will be served and a good time is promised by all. The play will be held in the Woman's Clubhouse here in L. G. The price to attend this fanciful farce is a mere six bits. Don't forget to see "Arsenic and Old Lace" in May.

My Helix High... All those desiring to go out as cheerleader or songleader, sign up in the A.S.B. office... Junior class elections will be held today... Seniors! Anyone interested in scholarship to Brigham Young—see Mr. Wallis... Give to your Cancer fund.

Interview of a Helix Songleader... "Carolyn Oliver"—a pretty senior—not sure of a college or of her future—A.S.B. office is her favorite class—loves Pizza—she's a council member from Helix on the Hi-Debbers—vice-president of the Mintiders—likes to listen to Ella Fitzgerald—likes Helix—thinks the school spirit is terrific—"A Thousand Stars" is her favorite tune.

Throwin' the Bull... (The following is reprinted from a pamphlet I received from the National Anti-Vivisection Society. This group is striving to halt the merciless slicing-up and experimenting of animals for human benefit.)

"We know we aren't human; we're just dogs, but we have feelings, just like you. We sometimes hurt. We get hungry and thirsty. We can stand those things. But please spare us from vivisection!"

"You've used us for hundreds of years. Millions of us have died in agony that you might test this and that. We've been baked and boiled, crushed and burned, cut and gassed—and little or nothing has been learned from us.

You know we'd lay down our lives for you. We always have, when the occasion demanded, for that's the way dogs are. And we don't ask much; just to be spared the trip from which no dog ever comes back the same.

Maybe you'll live after you're through with your knife. Maybe we'll even get an anesthetic while the worst is going on, but there will come a time when we'll be conscious again. We can't tell you, then, how much we hurt, or where. We can simply lie in our cages and suffer.

"Is vivisection really necessary? Can't you, wise and mighty men of science, find some way to help humanity without torturing us?"

ing us? Try... please. We don't ask to be born. We can't say when or how we'll die. Those things are for humans to decide. But we do ask, humbly and hopefully, if we can't have those things all dogs want—a home and a loving master—give us the very least we deserve; a painless death."

The Political Picture

William Howell

Fred W. Braubach Jr., chairman of the William F. Howell-for-Sheriff campaign committee, yesterday announced the appointment of an enlarged committee and the opening of campaign headquarters at Room 404, Orpheum Theatre Building.

According to Braubach, Bill Howell's campaign will stress the need for a juvenile bureau within the Sheriff's department, a decentralization designed to meet the needs of all County areas, the establishment of a Sheriff's Posse and additional accent on the narcotics problem.

Walter Wencke will serve as Braubach's vice chairman on the campaign committee. Other members are Harding Campbell, treasurer; Dr. Charles Graves Jr., secretary, and Jim Wilson, Christy Gregg, Ralph Duesbury, Allen Hitch Jr., Meredith Campbell, Lewis Dowdy, Dick Grialvalva, Chester Troan, Walter Settles, Phil Anawalt, George Wright and Dr. G. B. Parkinson.

Ralph Cloyd

How San Diego's incumbent State Senator Kraft helped defeat a legislative bill that would prevent the transfer of liquor licenses was told yesterday by Ralph Cloyd, Republican candidate for Kraft's post.

"The bill was defeated in the Senate on a day Kraft was absent," Cloyd said. "Had he been on the job, using his influence and voted the bill might have gone through and put an end to the vicious practice of selling liquor licenses. Some of these are issued by the State for a nominal fee to persons who in turn sell them for as much as $25,000.

Cloyd, who was a member of the recent Assembly, also reported that the public demand for a "cleanup in the liquor situation" was so great that a constitutional amendment will be on the ballot in the general election, which if passed, will create a Director in Charge of issuance of liquor licenses and law enforcement, divorcing those duties from the State Board of Equalization.

Bob Wilson

Organization of "Democrats for Bob Wilson" with David Casey and Lew Lipton as co-chairmen was announced yesterday by M. D. "Bud" Rodgers, campaign chairman of the Wilson for Congress committee.

Casey, a San Diego attorney, is a former member of the Democratic County Central Committee and former Vice President of the Democratic Men's Club. He and Lipton will be assisted by Lonnie White, treasurer of the organization.

Wilbur Easton

Declaring that the present tax collection operation for which he was Chief Deputy, saves the County the expense of hiring 40 extra part-time employees authorized by the budget, Wilbur W. Easton, candidate to succeed Collector Raymond B. Talbot, asked yesterday for election on the basis of experience, efficiency and courtesy to taxpayers.

"It would be obvious," Easton said, "that for the complex job of tax collection the one who had had the most experience is the best qualified. I started out in that office 21 years ago, worked up through Civil Service examinations to the highest classified rating, Chief Clerk, and for the

A section of Big Ace that connotes relaxation is the tobacco and beverage department. All of the items that go with conviviality are handled here. Whiskey will be stocked sometime during the coming month. The department head, genial Purl Brickey, and Marvin Ford, are pictured above. Ford is holding a sheet of 2½¢ Green Stamps, which naturally, goes with Big Ace purchases.

Mrs. Richard Paulin, 6129 Nelson Street, a regular Big Ace patron, is also a regular user of the added facility. "It's just part of our determination to serve our patrons better," Childress said.

A market has no personality within itself. Actually its personality is made up of its personnel and in particular its department heads.

Big Ace boasts the most capable, pleasant personnel in San Diego County. We present a planned variety of departments with personnel who want to help make your shopping trip to Big Ace more pleasant.

...away in one corner of the Big Ace Market is a snack bar. Sandwiches, hot or cold, pastry, soft drinks and soda fountain treats such as sodas, sundaes and milk shakes help make a Big Ace shopping trip an added treat. Jay Willis and Jackie Polsel are two of the ten person crew who pleasantly serve hundreds of hungry shoppers each day. Mr. Willis is operator of the bar. Some of the customers say that the food is a little tastier because of the fact that 2½¢ Green Stamps will be given when the check is paid.
